

WEST MIFFLIN AREA HIGH SCHOOL ONLINE INSTRUCTION

Monday, March 30

Students are asked to log in to Schoology and take the attendance survey by 12:00PM. There will be no online instruction or assignments on this day. Students should sign into Schoology to ensure their account is working.

Tuesday, March 31

Students are asked to log in to Schoology to take the attendance survey by 12PM. Students will also receive an email from each of their instructors, and should respond to that email no later than 12PM. These are the only requirements for the day. There will be no online instruction or assignments on this day.

Wednesday, April 1

The first official day of online instruction. Attendance will be taken by the first period teachers. Students will have to fill out a daily attendance questionnaire by noon every day to be counted present. The questionnaire will be two questions – 1. students name 2. date. Although students may have weekly assignments, they will be expected to log on and check in by noon daily.
